LUC ROBITAILLE

President, Alternate Governor

Luc Robitaille – a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, the all-time Kings leader in goals and the second-highest goal scoring left wing in NHL history – is in his eighth season as Kings President. He directs and oversees all hockey and business operations.

In April 2017, Robitaille was promoted to President. Robitaille also is an Alternate Governor with the Kings. He is his 18th season overall in the Kings front office after working the previous 10 years as President, Business Operations. He played 19 seasons in the NHL, including 14 with the Kings.

Since his playing career ended, Robitaille has had a tremendous impact on the Kings as an executive. For the Kings Business Operations department, revenue has more than doubled as the Kings won their first two Stanley Cups. Additionally, the team enjoyed a record sellout streak of 297 consecutive home games, including 262 straight regular-season contests. The Kings were named the Sports Team of the Year by the Sports Business Journal in 2015.

Robitaille has been a driving force for the growth of hockey in Southern California, launching the Little Kings Learn-to-Play program and the LA Kings High School Hockey League. Robitaille has also helped develop the Kings Care Foundation's principles, values, and strategic direction. He is on the Board of Children's Hospital Los Angeles and Ronald McDonald House, and he and his wife, Stacia, are the co-founders of a non-profit organization, Echoes of Hope.

He has also played a significant role behind organizing such unique events as the 2010 NHL Entry Draft and the 2017 NHL All-Star Game at Crypto.com Arena. In 2014, the Kings hosted the Anaheim Ducks in a regular-season outdoor NHL game at Dodger Stadium in front of 54,099 fans. The Kings played outdoor hockey again in 2015 at Levi's Stadium and in 2020 at the U.S. Air Force Academy and have played overseas on multiple occasions.

Robitaille ranks 13th in overall NHL goal-scoring and 24th in points while playing for the Kings, Penguins, Rangers, and Red Wings, where he won a Stanley Cup in 2002. Among NHL left wingers, Robitaille is second in points (1,394), goals (668), and assists (726). In 1,077 regular season games as a King, Robitaille tallied 557 goals and 597 assists for 1,154 points. With the Kings, he ranks fifth in games played, second in points, first in power-play goals, and fifth in assists.

A ninth-round selection (171st overall) in the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, the Montreal native became the first Kings player to win the Calder Memorial Trophy in 1987 and was named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team. Later, Robitaille helped lead the Kings to the club's first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in 1993 as he set NHL records for the most goals (63) by a left wing. Robitaille would go on to reach other milestones in a Kings uniform, including his 500th career goal, and saw his No. 20 jersey retired by the Kings. Robitaille was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 2009, and he has since been named one the NHL's 100 greatest players of all-time.

Luc, 58 (2/17/66), and Stacia have two sons, Steven and Jesse. They reside in Santa Monica.

ROB BLAKE

Vice President and General Manager

Rob Blake, a 2014 Hockey Hall of Fame inductee and two-time Stanley Cup Champion, is in his eighth season as the Kings' Vice President and General Manager and 12th season as an executive with the club. Under Blake's leadership, the Kings have clinched four Stanley Cup Playoff berths (2018, 2022, 2023, 2024) while accumulating a record of 261-213-62 for 584 points in 536 games.

Prior to being named to his current role in 2017, he previously served as the club's Vice President/Assistant General Manager for four seasons, helping the club capture the Stanley Cup in 2014. During this span, he also served as General Manager of the Ontario Reign, the Kings American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate and guided the then-AHL affiliate Manchester Monarchs to the 2015 Calder Cup Championship.

The team's best statistical season under Blake's guidance came in 2022-23 with a record of 47-25-10 and 104 points, marking the sixth time in franchise history the Kings eclipsed the 100-point mark. It also marked the first time since 2013-14 that the Kings earned consecutive playoff berths. On Feb. 13, 2023, Blake became the fastest general manager in franchise history – and fifth Kings GM all-time – to reach 200 regular season wins, doing so in 427 games.

On the ice, Blake played 14 of his 20 NHL seasons with the Kings (1990-01 and 2006-08) after being selected by the club in the fourth round (70th overall) of the 1988 NHL Entry Draft. He served as the Kings captain from 1996-01 and again during the 2007-08 season (six total seasons). In 1993, he helped lead the Kings to the franchise's first Stanley Cup Final appearance and five years later captured the franchise's first Norris Trophy (1998) as the league's best defenseman.

Blake is a two-time winner of the Kings Most Valuable Player Award (1997-98 and 1999-00); a six-time winner of the Kings Outstanding Defenseman Award (1990-91, 1991-92, 1992-93, 1993-94, 1997-98 and 1999-00); a winner of the Most Popular Player Award (1997-98); a winner of the Most Inspirational Award (1997-98); and he is a three-time winner of the Kings Community Service Award (1995-96, 1998-99 and 1900-00).

Blake, who also played with the San Jose Sharks (2008-10) and the Colorado Avalanche (2001-06), made seven trips to the NHL All-Star Game – including four as a King – and captured the Stanley Cup as a player with the Avalanche in 2001. He was also named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team in 1991, the NHL's First All-Star Team in 1998, and the NHL's Second All-Star Team three times. In 1,270 regular-season games, he registered 777 points (240-537=777) and added 73 points (26-47=73) in 146 playoff games to retire as the Kings franchise leader in nearly every defenseman statistical category.

Internationally, the Simcoe, Ontario native represented Team Canada in three Olympic Winter Games (1998, 2002 – gold, 2006), five International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) Men's World Championships (1991 – silver, 1994 – gold, 1997 – gold, 1998, 1999) and one World Cup of Hockey (1996 – silver). For his accomplishments, Blake was inducted into the IIHF Hall of Fame as part of the 2018 World Hockey Championship Gold Medal Game in Copenhagen.

Blake played college hockey at Bowling Green State University. He made his NHL debut with the Kings during the 1989-90 season. In January of 2015, he became the sixth former Kings player to have his jersey retired.

Upon retirement as a player, Blake worked in the NHL's Player Safety Department for three years (2010-13). Blake has also served as General Manager of Canada's Men's National Team for the 2014 IIHF Men's World Championship and worked in a Management Staff position on Team Canada's entry in the 2016 World Cup of Hockey.

Rob and his wife, Brandy, live in Manhattan Beach with their children Jack, Brooke and Max.

KELLY CHEESEMAN

Chief Operating Officer, Alternate Governor

Kelly Cheeseman serves as Chief Operating Officer (COO) of the Kings and represents the team as an Alternate Governor. In addition, Cheeseman serves as COO for AEG Sports which oversees multiple sports teams and events including the LA Galaxy (five-time MLS Champions), Ontario Reign (American Hockey League) and Eisbären Berlin of Deutsche Eishockey Liga, where he plays an integral executive role and is a member of that hockey franchise's Board of Directors.

In his 24th year with the organization, Cheeseman's day-to-day role as COO for the Kings includes overseeing the team's various business departments with the goal of maximizing club revenues and growing charitable endeavors. His areas of oversight include Ticket Sales and Service, CRM and Analytics, Marketing, Digital, Game Presentation, Communications and Broadcasting, Hockey Development, Community Relations and Human Resources along with working with AEG Global Partnerships to oversee all sponsorship opportunities for the club.

As part of the senior executive leadership team within the Kings, Cheeseman has played a key role in achieving record organizational success and setting several franchise records in ticket sales, sponsorship and digital metrics. Additionally, the team enjoyed a club-record sellout streak of 297 consecutive home games, including 262 straight regular season contests. In March 2014, he was named to Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 list, and in 2015 the Kings were named the Sports Team of the Year at the Sports Business Journal's Sports Business Awards event.

During his tenure at AEG, Cheeseman has been an integral part of the success of numerous high-profile championship teams and events in Los Angeles including championship boxing, tennis, lacrosse, soccer, cycling, track and field, three MLS Cups, two Stanley Cup Championships, two NHL All-Star Games, NHL Entry Draft, 50th Anniversary Celebration, NHL Premiere in Europe and three outdoor NHL Games. In recent years, the Kings made more history by playing the first NHL games in China and Australia. Cheeseman was also a driving force behind Keck Medicine of USC and Meyer Institute of Sport joining the LA Kings Off-Ice Training Center at Toyota Sports Performance Center in El Segundo.

In the community, Cheeseman has been an active board member with both the Kings Care and LA Galaxy Foundations. He helped lead the Kings Care Foundation's five-year pledge to Children's Hospital Los Angeles (CHLA) that includes a $1,000,000 commitment to the LA Kings Bloodmobile; the Foundation's five-year, $500,000 commitment to CHLA's Blood Donor Center; and a $1,000,000 commitment to the YMCA Metro Los Angeles to implement ball hockey in all 26 locations. Additionally, Cheeseman played a leading role in the Kings' $1,000,000 donation to Camp Ronald McDonald for Good Times to fund the construction of the Dining Hall and Activity Center in Mountain Center.

In conjunction with the Kings, Cheeseman serves on the following boards: Discovery Cube Los Angeles, Los Angeles Metro YMCA Board, Redondo Beach Police Foundation and the LA Sports and Entertainment Committee. Among the many highlights is the Kings Care Foundation's partnership with Discovery Cube Los Angeles which in 2015 introduced a $2.5-million Science of Hockey exhibit: a highly interactive, educational and science-based 3,000-plus square foot permanent wing of the museum based in the Hansen Dam Recreational Area.

Before joining the Kings and AEG, Cheeseman worked for the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes (California League) as Marketing Manager with a focus on Marketing and Ticket Sales. A graduate of Northwood University in West Palm Beach, Florida, Cheeseman earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Marketing Management in 2000. At Northwood, he minored in Advertising and MIS. In 1996, he attended Seton Hall University in South Orange, New Jersey. In school, Cheeseman served as Senior Class President; was a Member of the Men's Varsity Baseball Team at both universities; was the 2000 Student Athlete of the Year (Northwood University) and was a member of Who's Who in College Students in North America in 2000.

- Kempe became the sixth different player to represent Los Angeles at the All-Star Game since 2008.
- Kempe finished second in the faster skater competition with a time of 13.585 seconds.

2020 Notes:

- Anze Kopitar represented the Kings for the fifth time in his career.
- Kopitar recorded four assists in the 2 games he played for the Pacific Division All-Stars.
- Kopitar and the Pacific Division All-Stars won for the third time since the format changed to a 3-on-3, single elimination tournament in 2016.

2019 Notes:

- Drew Doughty represented the Kings while appearing in his fifth straight All-Star Game and fifth overall.
- Doughty and the Pacific Division All-Stars lost to the Central Division 10-4 in the first semifinal game.
- Doughty also placed third in accuracy shooting during the skills competition.

2018 Notes:

- Drew Doughty and Anze Kopitar helped the Pacific Division All-Stars win a second NHL All-Star Game in the past three seasons as the Pacific Division beat the Atlantic Division 5-2 in the Final.
- Since 2016, the traditional NHL All-Star Game format has been replaced by a four-team, 3-on-3, single elimination tournament, with one team representing each of the league's four divisions.
- For Doughty, it was his fourth straight appearance in the All-Star Game and his fourth appearance overall.
- For Kopitar, it was his fourth appearance in the All-Star Game. He was also an All-Star in 2015, 2011 and 2008.
- Jonathan Quick was also named a 2018 NHL All-Star but missed the game because of injury.

2017 Notes:

- Los Angeles and STAPLES Center served as hosts for the 2017 NHL All-Star Weekend (January 28-29, 2017).
- This was the city's third time as a host city and first time since 2002.
- The Kings also hosted the 2002 event at STAPLES Center and the 1981 event at the Great Western Forum.
- For Drew Doughty, 2017 marked both his third career All-Star appearance and his third straight All-Star appearance (all with the Kings).
- For Jeff Carter, his 2017 All-Star appearance was his first as a King and second overall (2009 with Philadelphia).
- Doughty and Carter, representing the Pacific Division, lost to the Metropolitan Division by a score of 4-3 in the Final after beating the Central Division 10-3 in the opening round of inter-divisional play.

2016 Notes:

- Drew Doughty and Jonathan Quick represented the Pacific Division in 2016 - as did Kings head coach Darryl Sutter - as a new 3-on-3 tournament to determine a winner was introduced for the All-Star Game.
- The new format divided the All-Star Game into three 20-minute games, with star players from each division making up the four All-Star teams: Pacific, Central, Atlantic, and Metropolitan.
- The players faced off in a winner-take-all $1 million inter-division tournament, with the Pacific Division beating the Atlantic Division 1-0 in the Final.

2015 Notes:

- Drew Doughty and Anze Kopitar both played for Team Foligno in 2015, and that team was coached by Kings head coach Darryl Sutter.
- The 2015 All-Star Game featured a draft format where first captains were selected for each team (Team Foligno and Team Toews), and then those captains drafted their respective teams from the remaining All-Stars.
- Team Toews beat Team Foligno 12-12 to win the 2015 All-Star Game.

NICK NICKSON

TV Play-By-Play Announcer

In his 44th season with the Kings, Nick Nickson is the “Voice of the Kings,” calling Kings games on Bally Sports West and the LA Kings Audio Network. The 2024-25 season will be Nickson’s 50th calling professional hockey.

Nickson received the 2015 Foster Hewitt Award as selected by the NHL Professional Broadcasters’ Association. The award, which recognizes those members of the radio and television industry who have made outstanding contributions to their profession and the game of hockey during their broadcasting careers, is recognized by a plaque in the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto. He is the third Kings broadcaster in franchise history to be awarded the Foster Hewitt Memorial Award joining Bob Miller (2000) and Jiggs McDonald (1990).

Nickson’s smooth, fast-paced, and accurate delivery of every play allows the listener to “see the game” as the action unfolds. In 2022, Nick called his 4,000th professional game. His total includes more than 3,800 games with the Kings and close to 500 in the American Hockey League. As another tribute to his broadcasting excellence, in 2009 he was inducted into the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame, and in 2011 he was inducted into the Frontier Field Walk of Fame in his hometown of Rochester, New York.

In addition to his Kings broadcasting duties, he has called regular season and playoff games for the NHL Radio Network. In 2009 he covered the World Championship for NBC Universal Sports. During the 2020-21 campaign he called various Ontario Reign games from El Segundo. He has been instrumental in developing and maintaining the Kings Radio Network while assisting the Kings Communications department in writing and editing the annual media guide. He is also involved in the Kings Care Foundation and Kings Alumni Association and has written close to 200 stories and articles on the NHL and the Kings. Nickson is a member of the Southern California Sports Broadcasters and the National Hockey League Broadcasters Association, and for seven summers (1983-89) baseball fans remember his voice as the Public Address Announcer at Dodger Stadium.

In 2006, the Kings held “Nick Nickson Day” at STAPLES Center, and Nickson was honored on the ice for his 25 years of service to the organization as a radio and television broadcaster. The broadcast booth area at Crypto.com Arena is named the Nick Nickson Broadcast Center.

His broadcasting career began during the 1975-76 season as the voice of the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League (AHL) before joining the New Haven Nighthawks (AHL) in 1977. He spent four seasons (1977-81) calling the action for the Nighthawks before his association with the Kings began. Nickson attended Ithaca College and served as the Sports Director for the school’s radio station while doing play-by-play for Ithaca’s hockey, football, baseball, and basketball teams. After graduating in 1975, he worked as a disc jockey for two stations in Rochester before beginning his career in hockey shortly thereafter.

Nick and his wife, Carolyn, reside in Santa Clarita and have two sons, Nicholas (married to Alexandra) and Timothy. The couple also has two grandchildren, Casey and Avery.

JIM FOX

Lead Analyst

Jim Fox is in his 36th season as the Kings TV Analyst. He serves as Lead Analyst for Kings games on Bally Sports West.

Eleventh on the Kings all-time scoring list with 479 points (186-293=479) in 578 games, Fox spent his entire 10-year playing career as a member of the Kings after being selected in the first round (10th overall) of the 1980 NHL Entry Draft. A three time 30-goal scorer, Fox enjoyed his most productive season in 1984-85 when he recorded 83 points (30-53=83). In 22 career playoff games with the Kings, Fox had 12 points (4-8=12).

Over his playing career with the Kings, Fox (578) holds the distinction of playing the fifth most games – starting, ending and only with the Kings (Dustin Brown as of the start of this season holds the mark followed by Anze Kopitar, Dave Taylor, and Drew Doughty). Fox is ninth all-time in even strength goals and ninth in shooting percentage in franchise history. Off the ice, Fox was the first Kings recipient of the club's Community Service Award (1988-89).

Fox worked his first 27 seasons in the Kings broadcast booth with Hall of Fame play by play announcer Bob Miller, and then six seasons with Alex Faust following Miller's retirement. Fox calls games with Nickson and Daryl Evans for club broadcasts on Bally Sports West.

In addition to his in-game duties in the broadcasting booth, Fox also served as the co-host of the Los Angeles-area Emmy Award-winning "LA Kings Live" pre-game show on FOX Sports West for several seasons. In 2019 that show also won a Los Angeles Emmy Award, and in 2022 another Los Angeles-Area Emmy Award for Live Sports Coverage was awarded to Fox and the entire Bally Sports West team after hosting Snoop Dogg at a game and featuring him in the telecast.

In the October 2, 2006, issue of Sports Illustrated, Fox was named the Best Analyst in hockey. From 1998 through 2012 Fox was named the Best TV Color Commentator in Southern California by Los Angeles Daily News Columnist Tom Hoffarth (the one year he did not win the award was when there was no NHL season), and Hoffarth has also named Fox and Bob Miller the "Best Broadcasting Team" in a different award. In 2008, the Southern California Sports Broadcasters honored him with the top pre and post-game shows commentator award and in 2009, 2011 and 2012, and in 2016 he won for the best TV Analyst for the third consecutive time. In 2018 he won the award again and was nominated for his work in the TV Pre & Post/Host/Reporter category.

On February 11, 2006, the Kings held "Jim Fox Day" at STAPLES Center, and Fox was honored on the ice before a game for his 25 years of service to the organization as a player and broadcaster. During the 2013-14 season, Fox was a Legends Night series honoree by the Kings at STAPLES Center. In 2016 he was inducted into the California Sports Hall of Fame and in 2017 he was inducted into the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Hall of Fame.

From 2005-08, Fox worked for NHL Radio through the Stanley Cup Final, as well as working as a studio playoff analyst for Yahoo! Sports from 2006-09. He was on-the-air for NHL Radio again during the 2017, 2018 and 2020 playoffs. In his current role he is one of the most tenured club television analysts (he and his former Kings teammate Craig Laughlin of the Capitals have been in their roles since 1990-91; Mickey Redmond has consistently worked Red Wings broadcasts as an analyst since 1986).

Prior to becoming a King, Fox – who himself in the popular 1999 movie "Mystery, Alaska," – enjoyed a standout junior career with the Ottawa 67's of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL). As the club's captain during the 1979-80 campaign, Fox recorded at least one point in every game including preseason, regular season, and the playoffs, and he was a finalist for the Canadian Jr. Player of the Year award after earning OHL Most Valuable Player and Leading Scorer awards under head coach Brian Kilrea, a Hockey Hall of Famer who scored the first goal in Kings history.

Internationally, Fox represented Canada at the World Junior Championship in Helsinki (1979-80) and he also earned a bronze medal at the World Championship in Moscow in 1986.

Upon retirement as a player in 1990, Fox became Director of Community Relations for the Kings. During that time, he was responsible for creating the Kings Care Foundation and events such as Tip-A-King, the team's charity golf tournament and the Kings Youth Hockey Camp.

He remains a strong force in the Kings Community Relations development and charitable efforts, serving as a Special Ambassador where he helps support and develop programs that benefit the children in our community while also sitting on the board. For 25 years, Fox co-hosted the Cystic Fibrosis Golf Classic with Dave Taylor, and in 2015 the Kings named their Community Service Award after Fox. Fox also served as Commissioner for the Los Angeles Kings High School Hockey League from 2015-17 and he hosted his "Sunset Sip" wine tasting fundraiser for several years to benefit The Guidance Center.

Fox, 64 (5/18/60), along with winemaker Mike Smith, produces single vineyard designate Pinot Noir from California under the brand name "Patiné Cellars." Patiné is French for "to have skated!"

A native of Coniston, Ontario, Jim lives in Redondo Beach with his wife Susie.

DARYL EVANS

Ice-Side Analyst

In his 26th season as a club broadcaster, Daryl Evans is part of the club's broadcast team as an analyst with Play-By-Play Announcer Nick Nickson and Jim Fox, with games simulcast on Bally Sports West and the LA Kings Audio Network (ESPN 710).

A member of the Kings as a player from 1981-85, Evans scored one of the franchise's most memorable goals in a game forever remembered as the "Miracle on Manchester." Facing the heavily favored Edmonton Oilers in the best-of-five first round of the 1982 playoffs, the Kings pulled off two huge upsets – one, in winning the series three games to two; and two, winning Game 3 of the series. Down 5-0 in the third period of that game on April 10, 1982, the Kings steadily chipped away at Edmonton's lead and tied the game with five seconds left in regulation. At 2:35 of the extra period, Evans, then a rookie, sent a shot over Grant Fuhr's shoulder to seal an improbable end to an incredible game. Evans went on to lead the Kings in playoff scoring with 13 points (5-8=13) in 1982.

Originally selected by the Kings in the ninth round (178th overall) of the 1980 NHL Entry Draft, the left wing recorded 52 points (22-30=52) in 113 career NHL games with the Kings, Washington Capitals, and Toronto Maple Leafs. In 11 career playoff games, Evans registered 13 points (all 13 points came with the Kings during the 1982 playoffs).

After retiring as a player, Evans coached the UCLA Bruins hockey team in the PAC-8 conference for two seasons (1997-99). They won the PAC-8 Championship in 1998-99 and went to the National Championships in Utah in 1999, where they were eliminated. Evans was also named the PAC-8 Coach of the Year both years. He currently is the President of the LA Lions and the Commissioner of the LA Kings High School Hockey League.

During the 1998-99 season, Evans began working alongside Nickson as a back-up commentator. Prior to his full-time radio role, Evans served as the Director of Premium Seating Sales for STAPLES Center, where he was responsible for sales of luxury suites, premier seats, and the premier club. Prior to taking the position at STAPLES Center, Evans managed at Martin Cadillac in West Los Angeles from 1992-99, where he reached Master Manager status seven years in a row. Along with his role breaking down games, Evans is active daily at the Toyota Sports Performance Center in El Segundo, formerly serving as the facility's General Manager, and he has sat on the Board for the Kings Alumni Association.

From 1999-2023, Evans worked with Nickson on the Kings radio broadcasts. During that time, he also worked as a TV Analyst (pre-game, post-game, and intermissions) for Kings games on Bally Sports West; contributed to Kings Production/LAKings.com; and served as a Kings power skating instructor for several years, beginning in 2007. During the 2020-21 campaign he called various Ontario Reign games from El Segundo.

Since 2007, Evans has spearheaded a charitable giving program in which he has donated $100 for every Kings power play goal scored (for a total of more than $80,000) in both the regular season and playoffs. In the first three years, proceeds went to the Ronald McDonald House Charities of Southern California while the proceeds from the other 11 seasons went to the American Heart Association (he is also on the Board of Directors with that group). Starting in 2019-20 the proceeds specifically benefitted Pancreatic Cancer Action Network. Evans formerly served as President of the LA Lions Girl's Hockey Program and hosts the team's annual 5K run/walk and LA Kings Fitness Club, which meets every weekly year-round in the Sound Bay.

In 2015 the Kings introduced a new Youth Hockey Service award, which is given annually to an active Kings player, named after Evans. In 2018 he received the top Radio Color/Analyst award by the Southern California Sports Broadcasting group (he has also been a finalist for that award in previous years along with his co-hosting role on Kings Talk), and the local chapter of the American Heart Association honored Evans with their inaugural "KING OF HEARTS" award.

A native of Toronto, Daryl resides in Redondo Beach, and he has two children: DJ and Danielle.

FRANCISCO X. RIVERA

Radio Play-By-Play Announcer

Francisco X. Rivera serves as the Play-by-Play Announcer for Kings games in Spanish on the radio. He began his on-air role with the Kings in 2018 on KWKW 1330 AM Tu Liga Radio.

During the 2019-20 season, he added the duties of club consultant to lead the team's Hispanic community outreach initiatives, and he called the Kings Spanish TV game on Día de Los Muertos for FOX Sports West. He is also part of the Kings Advisory Board, which assists the team in areas such as game presentation, content development and strategic partnerships, and he works closely with the Kings Care Foundation.

Rivera serves as one of the lead Spanish voices on Apple TV's Spanish TV coverage since February 2023. Rivera called Leagues Cup action in the new MLS Season Pass platform and has participated as MC for projects within the network.

Rivera took over the role as the Clippers' Spanish play-by-play announcer with the launch of ClipperVision in 2022. He calls the action while teaming up with a vast array of celebrities including former NBA players, world renowned athletes, musicians, and actors.

Since 2016, Rivera has worked as Estrella TV's primary sports anchor and producer in most of its network and Los Angeles local coverage on KRCA-62. He was the play-by-play announcer for all LAFC matches that aired on the station from 2020-22, and hosts Chargers shows during the NFL season.

Rivera has worked at FOX Sports since 2006, starting as a baseball commentator, and in 2012 he became the youngest broadcaster to call a World Series game on Spanish television in the U.S. He crossed over to the English market in 2013, becoming the first Mexican-born broadcaster (he is a native of Mexico City) to appear on the FOX network.

After calling several fights for the UFC and WEC, he is currently the English voice of LUX Fight League, the top MMA promotion in Latin America which airs its events on UFC Fight Pass in the U.S.

Rivera's resume also includes calling events such as the Super Bowl, the NBA Finals, UEFA Champions League, and several soccer events in English including the FIFA Club World Cup and Confederations Cup as well as U-20 Men's and Women's World Cups.

In addition Rivera, who has a Bachelor's Degree in Broadcast Journalism from Long Beach State University, was recognized as "Sports Knight" by The Hollywood Reporter in their September 2012 feature "Young Latinos in Entertainment: On-Air Talent to Watch." In 2022, El Camino College honored him as part of their Distinguished Alumni in that school's 75th Anniversary celebration.

Francisco lives in Calabasas with his wife Ailed.

BOB MILLER

Hockey Hall of Famer Bob Miller retired in March 2017 after 44 years as “Voice of the Kings.” He worked the first 17 years simulcast on TV and radio and the last 27 years as the exclusive television voice of the team joined by former Kings right wing Jim Fox for Kings games on FOX Sports West (now Bally Sports West). Overall Miller called 3,353 Kings games including his final two telecasts on April 8 at STAPLES Center and April 9 in Anaheim.

On November 13, 2000, Miller received the Foster Hewitt Award, as selected by the NHL Professional Broadcasters’ Association. In 2011, Miller was inducted into the California Sports Hall of Fame and in 2017 the Television Academy selected Miller as the recipient of the Governor’s Award.

In 1998, to commemorate his 25 years of loyal service to the organization, Miller was honored by having the STAPLES Center press box named after him and was presented with a “lifetime contract” by the club, and in 1997, Miller was named as one of the six inaugural members of the Kings Hall of Fame during the organization’s 30th Anniversary celebration. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association also named him the California Sportscaster of the Year in 1997 and 2002.

MICHAEL ALTIERI

Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications and Content

Michael Altieri is in his 30th season with the Kings where he has guided the Kings organizational narrative, communication and brand strategy, while holding numerous positions in the areas of communications, media relations, broadcasting, marketing, game entertainment, content development and production since joining the organization in 1995.

Currently serving as Senior Vice President, Marketing, Communications and Content, Altieri's current scope of responsibility with the Kings includes directing and overseeing all Kings consumable content such as Marketing, Digital, Production, Game Operations and Events, Communications and Broadcasting. He also guides the logistical functions within Team Operations and Player Services. Altieri is in his fifth season in this specific role after the Kings aligned these areas to support the franchise under a unified identity and voice, while developing a communications and brand strategy for the entire organization to communicate a singular public narrative, tone and brand look.

Altieri's oversight and influence also includes areas of brand development, player and family services, Alumni Relations, and Heritage. A Board Member for the Kings Care Foundation and an original member of the NHL's Communications Advisory Board, Altieri joined the organization in 1995 as a Media Relations Assistant, which eventually led to him serving as the Kings primary media contact from 1996-07. During this time, Altieri led the Kings media relations efforts, highlighted by the team's move to STAPLES Center in 1999 and the organization's hosting of the 2002 NHL All-Star Weekend.

He was named Senior Vice President, Communications and Broadcasting prior to the start of the 2003-04 season and, while continuing to oversee the Kings Communications and Broadcasting departments, he led the Kings' efforts in the creation of an internal video and content production department which not only supported the Kings' popular on-line video platform – then-called Kings Vision – but also developed content for all Kings business entities. In addition, Altieri was actively involved in the concept and launch of LAKingsinsider.com.

Altieri was also part of the Kings leadership team that helped execute two successful Stanley Cup Finals (2012 and 2014), three Kings outdoor hockey games in 2014, 2015 and 2020, and the 2017 NHL All-Star Weekend in Los Angeles.

Prior to the Kings, Altieri, a graduate of California State University, Long Beach, served as Director of Public Relations for Forum Sports, Inc. (1993-95), where he promoted special events including professional roller hockey, indoor soccer, professional tennis, and volleyball exhibitions. He also served as a Public Relations Assistant for the Los Angeles Lakers from 1992-95.

He resides in Torrance with his wife Milli.

crypto.com ARENA

== 25 YEARS == OF ICONIC MOMENTS

For a quarter century, Crypto.com Arena has garnered an unrivaled reputation for excellence having established itself as one of the world's busiest and most successful venues in the world.

Since opening on October 17, 1999, with Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, millions of guests have come through the doors of the AEG-owned and operated venue to attend a schedule of prestigious concerts, sporting events, award shows, family shows and other major attractions unmatched by any arena.

The House of Champions: As the home of three professional sports franchises – the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers, the NHL's Los Angeles Kings, and the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks – Crypto.com Arena has proven to be a home court advantage for the local teams with the Lakers capturing six NBA Championships along with the inaugural NBA In-Season Tournament Championship in 2023 and the Kings winning two Stanley Cup titles since 1999, while the Sparks captured back-to-back WNBA Championships in their first two Crypto.com Arena campaigns and brought home their third WNBA Championship in 2016.

Crypto.com Arena continues to distinguish itself as the host of major, high-profile events of national and international distinction including the 2004, 2011 & 2018 NBA All-Star Weekends, the 2002 & 2017 NHL All-Star Games and 2010 NHL Draft, 2002 U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 2000 Democratic National Convention, 2009 ISU World Figure Skating Championships, 21 GRAMMY Award shows, 11 X Games competitions, 4 WTA Tour Championships, 12 Pac 12 Men's Basketball Championship tournaments and 2013 & 2018 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship West Regional.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, for the first-time in the arena's history, it was able to serve as an official LA County Vote Center on October 24 - November 3, 2020.

Brimming with Innovation: Crypto.com Arena has invested hundreds of millions of dollars to ensure that the venue remains state-of-the-art. In 2024, the arena completed its nine-figure multi-million-dollar renovation project with new amenities and offerings for every guest from premium offerings including a redesigned 'Yaamava' Club by San Manuel, an expanded Lexus Club and L.A.'s first Tunnel Suites to the all-new City View Terrace located on the upper concourse, which boasts stunning views of L.A. LIVE and the Downtown Los Angeles skyline, as well as serves as the home of celebrity chef David Chang's new fuku spicy chicken concept.

Guests who attend events are treated to the finest entertainment experiences imaginable. The arena has free public Wi-Fi and (as part of a specially designed $1.5 million facility-wide sound system) 675 separate speakers outside of the seating area. In 2022, Daktronics manufactured and installed new LED end wall video displays and more than 3,000 linear feet of ribbon displays. In 2024, Daktronics further enhanced the arena viewing experience by installing a new, six-display, 5,500 square-foot and 41.7-million-pixel center-hung scoreboard specially designed for the arena, which brings fans even closer to the action.

LIVE. Finally, the arena provides fifty-five public restrooms including three family restrooms, five Mamava Lactation Pods and Sensory Pods.

Perhaps the greatest emphasis throughout Crypto.com Arena's development has been the recruitment and training of its guest services and security staff. The Crypto.com Arena experience is second-to-none from the entertainment environment to the staff's commitment to making every guest's visit a memorable one. Never has an arena had the amenities, features, and commitment to quality service that Crypto.com Arena offers to guests each time the doors open for an event. Crypto.com Arena continues to set new standards for the arena industry.

Sustainability: As a founding member of the Green Sports Alliance in 2009, for AEG and Crypto.com Arena, sustainability is vital. In June 2024, AEG expanded its partnership with the nation's No. 1 reuse platform, rWorld, to bring the reusable rCup program into both Crypto.com Arena and Peacock Theater fulltime following a successful pilot program that diverted 23,418 single-use cups during two Depeche Mode shows in the arena in 2023.

Crypto.com Arena was one of the first arenas in the U.S. to install LED sports lighting, solar panels, the fuel-efficient Bloom Energy Cell system and waterless urinals. Water refill stations were installed during recent renovation projects that have currently saved 57,344 single-use bottles. The arena has also had a long relationship with AtmosAir, and post-pandemic continues to offer guests, players, artists, and employees clean, safe air that also reduces HVAC-related energy consumption. In 2023, Crypto.com Arena was awarded WELL Health Safety Rating by the International WELL Building Institute (IWBI).

Philanthropy: Crypto.com Arena's charitable activities are a part of AEG 1Community and its AEG Community Foundation. AEG 1Community seeks to reach beyond the traditional boundaries of business to support the communities where the organization operates. AEG believes that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive and Crypto.com Arena strives to be civic leaders by working to improve the economic and social well-being of local communities where the company operates.

The AEG Community Foundation was established to build on AEG's unwavering commitment to serving children and families through grantmaking. The mission of the Foundation is to support children and families in need through grantmaking in the areas of K-12 education, the arts, health, and wellness. We at AEG believe that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive.

Crypto.com Arena and L.A. LIVE serve as the hub for community engagement and support employee volunteerism activities such as a company-wide Day of Service when, through a partnership with City Year, employees volunteer to refurbish local public schools by providing supplies, painting, cleaning and gardening services.

Bustling Dining & Live Entertainment Campus: Located directly across the street from Crypto.com Arena is L.A. LIVE, a one-of-a-kind sports and entertainment district in downtown Los Angeles. The four million square foot destination features Peacock Theater, The GRAMMY Museum, and The Novo, giving L.A. LIVE "more music per square foot" than any other location in the world.

The district offers a rich mix of local, regional, and national restaurants including Yard House, Katsuya, Fixins Soul Kitchen, Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar, Tom's Watch Bar, Smashburger, Starbuck's, Savoca, Sendero, Lazy Dog Restaurant and Bar and Craft by Smoke & Fire. AEG COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

At AEG, our business is interwoven with the human mind and heart. We seek to reach beyond the traditional boundaries of business to support the communities where we operate. The AEG Community Foundation was established to build on AEG's unwavering commitment to serving children and families across the United States through grantmaking. The mission of the Foundation is to support children and families in need through grantmaking in the areas of K-12 education, the arts, and health and wellness. We believe that corporate philanthropy and community engagement play a critical role in helping communities thrive.

The mission of Kings Care Foundation is to support families in Los Angeles by dedicating financial and in-kind resources to services and programs. To that end, the LA Kings Hockey Club reinvests in LA-based non-profits with the following shared goals:

- Wellness - Support institutions and programs that ensure the mental and physical development of youth in Los Angeles.
- Sustainability - Prioritize sustainable business practices in our facilities and mobilize the entire LA Kings community to act responsibly.
- Social Advocacy - Address the challenges which threaten our local communities.
- Inclusion - Foster environments that welcome individuals of all races, genders, socio-economic backgrounds and abilities.

Current Kings Care Foundation Commitments

- This year, the Foundation renewed its commitment to the life-supporting work of CHLA with a new 5-year, $1,000,000 commitment. These funds will support the Blood Donor Center, Division of Neurosurgery and Sickle Cell Disease Program in providing best-in-class care to youth and families in Los Angeles. Since its formation Kings Care Foundation has contributed over $3,000,000 in financial support to the hospital.

- The LA Kings have pledged a total of $1,600,000 to fund Ball Hockey league play in community YMCAs across Los Angeles. This play expansion partnership invites kids to learn new skills and fall in love with the game. Furthermore, this partnership advances Kings Care Foundation's goal to achieve greater play equity in hockey by eliminating financial and accessibility barriers to enter the sport.

- The LA Kings Science of Hockey exhibit at Discovery Cube Los Angeles opened in 2015 as a fun and interactive application of science and math concepts to the sport of hockey. The Foundation pledged $2,500,000 over ten years to develop and maintain the exhibit, which provides another entry point to the sport for kids who have not yet attended or played the game.

- The Foundation supports Ronald McDonald House Charities in a variety of ways throughout the year. This year, the Foundation completed its five-year, $1,000,000 commitment with the Hope Reigns Foundation. The Foundation also supports with holiday celebrations, ball hockey clinics and in-kind donations.

- Along with 11 other professional sports franchises in Los Angeles, Kings Care Foundation made clear its intention to develop a more equitable youth sports landscape by signing on to a comprehensive, five-year $500,000 commitment to drive investment and impact for social justice through sport. Through this initiative, the LA Kings develop meaningful programs to pursue change in communities of color.

- The Kings Care Foundation supports ThruGUIDANCE's diversity ice skating program, 24° of Color based out of the Toyota Sports Performance Center and LA Kings Iceland at Paramount. The program aims to diversify ice skating and ice hockey in LA County by making these sports more accessible financially, ensuring diverse representation at the rink, and providing resources for participants to compete competitively, if interested. Specifically, the Foundation's monetary commitment sponsors youth players through the We Are All Kings Hockey Pathway with the goal of progressing to join an in-house hockey league team.

- The "We Are All Kings" platform signals the LA Kings commitment to creating a culture in which every individual feels welcome in the Kings family. Namesake programming will reflect two values the LA Kings holds to its core, inclusivity and equity, ensuring every player and fan is embraced within the sport of hockey locally.

HISTORY OF AEG AND ITS HOCKEY SPORTS PROPERTIES

ONTARIO REIGN

AEG History – Officially became a property of AEG in 2008 and elevated to the American Hockey League prior to the 2015-16 season. This year the team celebrates its 16th season.

Team History – The Ontario Reign proudly served as the ECHL affiliate of the Kings for several seasons before becoming the organization's primary minor league affiliate prior to the 2015-16 season. In their first AHL season, the Reign captured Pacific Division and Western Conference regular-season titles and advanced to the Western Conference Finals in the Calder Cup Playoffs. The Reign went on to qualify for the playoffs in each of the following two seasons, reaching the Pacific Division Semifinals. The Reign hosted the 2020 AHL All-Star Classic, the first time the event was ever held in California, and celebrated the 15th anniversary of professional hockey in the Inland Empire during the 2022-23 season. The Reign have ranked in the AHL's top 10 in attendance in all eight of their seasons as the Kings top developmental affiliate, in addition to holding the league's largest season-ticket holder base.

Located 40 miles east of Los Angeles, the Reign play at Toyota Arena and practice at the Toyota Sports Performance Center in El Segundo, where the team held games during the 2020-21 season. The proximity to the Kings benefits both organizations, and in addition to on-ice success, the Reign have set numerous attendance records and have earned several league-wide awards.

GARNET "ACE" BAILEY AND MARK BAVIS TRIBUTE

Garnet "Ace" Bailey, who was 53, was set to begin his 33rd season in the NHL as a player or scout. Bailey had enjoyed a tremendous amount of success in both capacities, with seven Stanley Cup rings as proof. Having spent seven years as the Kings' director of pro scouting, Bailey spent the previous 13 years as a scout with the Edmonton Oilers.

Bailey's ability to evaluate NHL talent helped the Oilers to five Stanley Cups in the 1980s. During Edmonton's many great playoff runs, Bailey played the key role of advance scout, supplying detailed information on upcoming opponents.

A veteran of 11 NHL seasons as a player, Bailey broke in with the Boston Bruins during the 1968-69 season and spent five years with the club. While with the Bruins, he was a member of Stanley Cup championship teams in 1969-70 and 1971-72. Bailey also spent parts of two seasons each with the Detroit Red Wings and St. Louis Blues, and three-plus years with the Washington Capitals.

Bailey, who was originally from Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, jumped to the World Hockey Association for the 1978-79 season and joined the Edmonton Oilers, where he was a linemate of teenage phenom Wayne Gretzky.

Ace lived in the Boston suburb of Lynnfield with wife Katherine and son Todd.

The Los Angeles Kings family was deeply shaken and saddened over the loss of Garnet "Ace" Bailey and Mark Bavis, two club scouts who were aboard United Airlines Flight 175 from Boston's Logan Airport on September 11, 2001. Both men sported fantastic personalities and their love for the sport of hockey was evident in their work, and their passion for the Kings helped foster a fun and winning attitude. Both Mark and Ace are incredibly missed indeed.

Mark Bavis, who was 31, was entering his second season as an amateur scout for the Kings. A native of the Boston-area, Bavis played college hockey at Boston University. Prior to joining the Kings he worked as a coach with Chicago of the North American League and as an assistant coach with Harvard of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

Bavis, who was drafted by the New York Rangers in the ninth round (181st overall) of the 1989 NHL Entry Draft, made his home in West Newton, Massachusetts. He was survived by his mother, Mary; his twin brother, Mike; two brothers, Pat and Johnny; and three sisters, Kelly, Mary Ellen and Kathy. To help support each of the men and their lasting legacies, please visit The Mark Bavis Leadership Foundation at markbavisleadershipfoundation.org, and for information on The Ace Bailey Children's Foundation, please visit acebailey.org and follow them @AceBaileyFdn.

Please visit The Mark Bavis Leadership Foundation at markbavisleadershipfoundation.org. In November 2020, the Ace Bailey Children's Foundation – after 19-plus years – closed its doors. The organization remains grateful to everyone who helped improve the experience of hospitalization for kids and their families at Tufts Children's Hospital in Boston. Both Foundations helped support each of the men and their lasting legacies
